

Maids Head

Wicken Fen

Monks Lode starts as a chalk spring in Landwade Hall, Newmarket. Many of the Lodes in the area were built by the Romans and used for transport. It is believed that Monk's Lode is so called because it was used by the Monks at Spinney Abbey for fishing and transport.

The open fenland landscape gives excellent views of Ely Cathedral. The Downfield Flour and the Lion Mills of Clark and Butcher can be seen as landmarks in Soham.
